

Simple. Clear. Collaborative. Task Management for Small Teams.

Why FlowFox?

FlowFox is built for teams who want structure without complexity. No bloated features. No steep learning curve. Just a clean, shared workspace where everyone knows what they need to do — and when.

1

Built for Small Teams That Need Clarity

FlowFox gives your team a single place to track projects, tasks, owners, and deadlines.

No more scattered spreadsheets, lost messages, or "Who's doing this?" confusion.

2

Zero Setup Headaches

Every organisation gets its own private FlowFox instance on a dedicated subdomain.

Your admin adds users — and you're ready to go. No public signups. No noise. No security worries.

3

Projects & Tasks Made Simple

Create projects, assign owners, add tasks, update progress — all in seconds. FlowFox keeps everything clean and structured so teams stay aligned.

- Projects with clear owners
- Tasks with due dates and status
- Updates that show progress
- Easy reassignment when work moves between people
- It's the workflow you already use — just organised.

4

Automatic Accountability

FlowFox keeps everyone on track without nagging.

Daily Summary Email (automatic)

Every user receives a midnight digest of all their live tasks, grouped by project.

RealTime Alerts (optional)

Get instant notifications when tasks are created, updated, or reassigned — perfect for Teams, Zoom, or group email channels.

5

Lightweight by Design

FlowFox doesn't store files — and that's intentional.

Instead, link to documents in Dropbox, Google Drive, SharePoint, or any cloud service.

This keeps FlowFox:

- Fast
- Affordable
- Easy to maintain
- Perfect for teams that already use cloud storage

6

Clear Roles, No Confusion

Two simple user types:

- Default Users: create projects, tasks, and updates
- Admins: manage users, delete items, configure alerts

No complicated permission systems. Just what small teams need.

7

Affordable, Predictable, No Bloat

FlowFox focuses on the essentials — not the feature overload that slows teams down.

You get a clean, reliable task management system at a price that makes sense.

FlowFox Helps Teams:

- Stay aligned
- Track work clearly
- Avoid missed deadlines
- Reduce backandforth messaging
- Keep everyone accountable
- Move tasks smoothly between team members
